6 new publishers elected to IMPF Board

Rosa M. Vizcaíno Gómez, Emily Stephenson, Claudia Mescoli, Cecilia León Rodrigo, Tatjana Bukvić and Denise Andrikopoulou newly elected at organisation's 2024 General Assembly.

IMPF has elected a new College of members to its Board at the organisation's 2024 General Assemblies in Dublin.

Rosa M. Vizcaíno Gómez (Ediciones Musicales Clipper's), Emily Stephenson (Downtown Music Publishing), Claudia Mescoli (Edizioni Curci), Cecilia León Rodrigo (Ediciones Joaquín Rodrigo), Tatjana Bukvić (Tin Drum Music) and Denise Andrikopoulou (D-Version Music Publishing) have all been newly elected for the 2024 - 2026 College.

IMPF and its members gathered in the Republic of Ireland capital for two days from Thursday April 25. Prior to the General Assembly, the event included the launch of IMPF's latest Global Market View report, as well as a programme of panel discussions and keynote speakers from the Irish and international music industry featuring IMRO, AIM Ireland, IMPALA, IMPEL among others.

The full list of candidates elected to the IMPF Board College 2024-2026 can be found below.

IMPF President Annette Barrett said: “It’s a pleasure to welcome six new faces to the IMPF Board, alongside those that have been re-elected for the College 2024 - 2026. The IMPF membership is full of highly experienced, entrepreneurial, and creative music publishing professionals, and to have such a breadth of executive talent from around the world on our Board is a real asset to our organisation and community. It’s also great that we have elected 13 women to the Board of 22 members and we look forward to serving the 200 companies that currently make up IMPF.”
